

Work Together for the Good

Words and music by Troy McIntosh ©2003

I

You may be wondering if Jesus really cares
When fears arise, how does He feel your tears?
Or how could the God who spoke the earth, the sun...
And designed the galaxies
Be so in love with you and me?

II

You may be doubting His word is really true
But rest assured, He knows the plans for you
No not one mark, one jot, one dot, one letter
Of His word will fail to pass
And all things work together for the good

chorus

No matter the emergency
I know it's in His plan for me
For nothing is allowed to be Outside His care

No matter what the circumstance
Jesus keeps me in his hands
And all things work together for the good

bridge

Oh, oh, oh...
He's working
Oh, oh, oh...
He's working for the good

chorus

special

All things work together for the good
All things work together for the good

Situations, persecutions
All things are working
Sleepless nights, crying eyes
All things are working

Everything, Everything

All things
All things
All things work together for the good
