words and lyrics by troy mcintosh © 2002

verse 1

What mind would contemplate
That the King would be crucified?
But the Trinity did foresee
That the Lord would be bruised for you To satisfy His Holiness
A sacrifice for righteousness
To be finished on Calvary

verse 2

Whose blood can redeem
A billion times a billion souls?
Or whose stripes could heal each disease Cure each lie that I ever told?
What manner of man
Could heal me by the scars in his hands?
I did it for you

chorus

Calvary — Carnal man can't see the necessity of Calvary — all the would be lost if it wasn't for my blood
Calvary — bore the cross for the Joy above Knowing it required a King to redeem — I did it for you

chorus

bridge

It took more than a just man
Much more than the just the nails
More than some man, fabled myth, or creative ancient tale

Bled to save the world
He rose to tame the grave
Coming back again to rule and forever reign
